The Baptist brethren are to be commended for their success, and we hope that Mr. Crockett will decide to come to Quincy to live. We extend to him a most hearty welcome in our midst. The growth of this church has been quite gratifying to the older members, for about seven years ago it was organized here with only five. To-day it has a membership of over thirty and has, clear of debt, a new modern church building, with all the necessary equipments and no debts hanging over it. Their success is well merited and bids fair to result in much good to the community."

President Roosevelt is receiving the attention of the press of the country just now because of his invitation to Booker Washington, the noted negro educator, to dine with him at the White House, which invitation was accepted. President Roosevelt is a wonderful man, no doubt, but this act alone will bring him under the condemnation of millions of American citizens. All we can say is, that there is no accounting for tastes.

How People Lose Their Money

BY CONCEALING it about their person; by stowing it away in mugs, jugs, and jars; by sewing it up in skirts and ticks, by tucking it under the couches and carpets, in cupboards and bureau drawers; these are some of the ways by which people lose their money, and sometimes their lives.

How People Save Their Money

BY DEPOSITING it in a good reliable bank. Confident that this bank fully meets the public's needs, we tender its services to all who believe in keeping on the safe side. . . .
